Biography

Emilie Bellet is a recognised voice in financial education and WealthTech, bringing entrepreneurial experience and financial sector insight to organisations seeking to strengthen financial confidence and inclusion. As Founder and CEO of Vestpod, she has built a platform and community dedicated to improving financial literacy, particularly for women.

Her expertise spans personal finance, investing and the evolving WealthTech landscape. She contributes to industry thinking through her published work, including her book You're Not Broke, You're Pre-Rich and her contribution to The WealthTech Book (Wiley), positioning her at the intersection of financial education and financial innovation.

Emilie's perspective is further informed by her experience as a former personal finance columnist for the Financial Times, where she translated complex financial topics into clear, accessible insight for a broad readership. This combination of media credibility and sector knowledge enables her to engage senior audiences with clarity and commercial relevance.

Recognised within the FinTech sector, she has been listed in the Women in FinTech Powerlist and shortlisted for Disruptor of the Year at the Women in Finance Awards. For organisations focused on financial wellbeing, inclusion and innovation, Emilie provides informed, practical insight into building financial confidence at scale.

What Emilie Bellet's clients say

Emilie is a brilliant champion of female financial empowerment. We asked Emilie to produce a special event around financial capability and the International Women Day theme: #BreakTheBias. Emilie balanced discussing complex money topics and feminism in a really engaging and thought provoking way; encouraging attendees to take action not only for themselves but for friends, family and our wider female community. This is the true power of women supporting women.

Emilie is fantastic at inspiring people to take charge of their financial lives, with great insights, practical advice and relatable content. She gave a very engaging workshop for us which focused on the gender gap in investing and what women should do about it. I also think her book is a must read!

Sharon Hubmann Skinner
BCG

Emilie's fantastic International Women's Day talk was packed with practical tips and takeaways that were delivered in an digestible, engaging and truly inspiring way. She shared insightful statistics that illustrated the progress women have made when it comes to personal finance...but there is clearly still a way to go. Emilie really is driving a movement of female financial capability and empowerment.
