

Carl's biography

Carl Nasman

TV, video and social media journalist

A TV news anchor and correspondent with more than a decade of experience in television news, reporting breaking stories from the studio and in the field.

Carl Nasman, Accomplished Event Host & Moderator

Carl hosts primetime shows on DW-TV's 24/7 English-language news channel, including The Day, which airs on PBS in the US and partner stations around the globe.

He is also an innovator. As a senior correspondent for DW's digital video team, he has produced social-first stories that explain the trends behind the news. As a reporter for the digital series Follow the Hashtag, he was nominated for a 2016 European Digital Media Award. He has presented Facebook Live coverage of breaking news and special events and developed DW's first IGTV news video series, Portrait Mode.

His work also dives deep. Carl has reported, produced and edited feature stories for PBS's national TV news program. They include military war games training in San Diego and the dental health crisis among children in El Salvador. He has worked as a documentary correspondent for DW, including the reporter-driven series Life Links, featuring young people overcoming obstacles around the world.

He has also reported, filmed and edited video stories for multiple outlets including AJ+, Time.com, Wall Street Journal and Global Post.

Carl is a fluent Spanish and German speaker, a trained VJ and a highly accomplished event and conference host and moderator.