

Dietmar Dahmen

Top business expert on innovation, disruption, trends and technologies of the future

Dietmar Dahmen is an energetic speaker on the upcoming demands and the business opportunities created by new trends and technologies. He explains the complex in simple ways, and gets his audience – from expert to novice – to feel the need to change now!

Dietmar's biography

Dietmar started out as a strategic planner, and later moved on to become a highly decorated creative. He was Creative Director with DDB, Executive Creative Director with Ogilvy, Chief Creative Officer and Managing Director with BBDO, working in Hamburg, New York, Munich, Los Angeles and Vienna. Today, Dietmar is the founder and managing director of Dietmar Dahmen Brainkicks GmbH and works as a professional speaker, author, coach and motivator. He helps bring change to global clients, is involved with various start-ups and is the expert for future marketing and disruptive technology with the European Association of Advertising Agencies.

Dietmar Dahmen Keynote Speaker

His style of presentation is informative, motivating, inspiring, entertaining and designed to reach the heart of the audience, by creating memorable images and moments on stage. In-house motivation or external event, an experience that will challenge, motivate, inspire and WOW your team, customers and partners. A highly sought-after speaker who inspires and engages audiences with his energetic and creative style, Dietmar is available to speak globally.

All content can be catered to each client's specific needs. Client-specific messages can be included. The slides of the keynote can be custom made to fit all kinds of formats , including extra wide, ultra high resolution. Dietmar presents in English and German.

