

Hernando de Soto

Called “the world’s greatest living economist”
by Bill Clinton

An author, activist and an economist known for his work on the informal economy.

Hernando's biography

Hernando de Soto's Background

A passionate advocate of the Institute for Liberty and Democracy (ILD), his key message surrounding the fact that a strong information framework recording property ownership and other economic information is key to a strong market economy in any nation is helping the world's small entrepreneurs to help themselves by ensuring all economic activity and legal ownership is documented.

- President of the Institute for Liberty and Democracy (ILD) in Peru
- ILD Identified as one of the top two think tanks in the world by The Economist
- Chosen by Time Magazine as one of the top five Latin American Innovators of the century in 1999, and is among the 100 most influential people in the world
- Has been awarded numerous prizes for his work and is co-chair for the World Justice Project
- Fluent in both English and Spanish for speaking commitments

Hernando's talks

- The Mystery of Capital: Why Capitalism Triumphs in the West and Fails Everywhere Else
- The Future of the World Economy
- Third World Economy

Speakers Associates Ltd | +44 (0)1628 636600 | info@speakersassociates.com |
www.speakersassociates.com