

Rory's biography

Rory Bremner

One of Britain's best known impressionists and comedians

Scottish born comedian Rory Bremner is well known for his political satire and TV appearances; one of Britain's truly sharp impressionists!

About Rory Bremner

- Has a range of over 80 characters for which he can put on impressionist shows for, including Roy Hattersley (Labour politician), Paul Hardcastle (composer) and most famously Tony Blair, the act that originally broke him onto the comedy circuit!
- Recent media appearances including hosting C4 quiz show, Face the Clock, 2013 BBC Scotland documentary Rory goes to Holyrood and as a contestant in Strictly come Dancing (2011)
- Supporter of various charities, including Greenpeace, Friends of the Earth and Transport 2000
- Has translated three operas into English:
 - Der Silbersee by Kurt Weill
 - Carmen by Georges Bizet
 - Orpheus in the Underworld by Jacques Offenbach

Speaking Style

Amusing, Informal, Interactive and Story-telling.