

Tim Vine

Known as “The Punslinger”, Tim Vine’s unrivalled one-liners have catapulted him to international stardom as a stand-up comedian

Described as the ‘king of the one-liner’, Tim Vine has cemented himself in stand-up and television history with his unique wit and lightning fast delivery.

Tim's biography

Tim Vine’s background

- Best known in the comedy circuit for shows such as The Joke-A-motive and Current Puns, Vine became known to a wider audience when he ventured into comic acting, playing Timothy Adams in BBC One’s popular series Not Going Out between 2006 and 2012.
- Stand-up comedian
- Major character in BBC One’s Not Going Out (2006 – 2012)
- Writer

Speaking Style

Dazzling his audiences with his unique one-liners, Vine is famed for his speed; able to reel-off up to ten jokes per minute, there is never a dull moment at events he is hired for.

