

Kate Garraway

Good Morning Britain presenter

Kate Garraway is a well known radio broadcaster and experienced TV presenter with years of experience in her field. As such she is a perfect person to front any television show, to host a wide range of events and to deliver fascinating after dinner speeches about the media world to all sorts of audiences.

Kate's biography

Kate Garraway's background

Kate is currently a lead presenter on ITV's popular Good Morning Britain and also has a daily show on Global Radio called Smooth. It runs 10am to 1pm each week day and Kate has also recently made her own documentary for The Travel Channel that found her interviewing Michael Palin. On top of this, Kate is also the face of the BBC's National Lottery show on Saturday night and has been interviewing some of the world's most famous movie stars, celebrities, sports people and more for many years. In the past she has worked for ITV News, Sky News, BBC Radio and BBC News 24 and has also been a regular on Loose Women. Kate has also appeared in the flagship BBC show Strictly Come Dancing in the fifth series. She finished 8th of 14 couples and was partnered with professional dancer Anton du Beke and is also someone who has lots of time for charity. As such Kate is an ambassador for the Make-A-Wish Foundation. Often in the press and an immediately recognisable face, Kate Growly is a quality and accomplished guest, celebrity personality and TV star who adds real occasion and value to a wide range of public, private and corporate events.

