

Katie Pilbeam

Professional news presenter, NCTJ qualified journalist and experienced international events host

Based in Moscow for four years as a main news anchor on Russia Today, Katie covered breaking news solo for six hours each day. Alongside anchoring, Katie produced and hosted her own popular weekly business show 'Venture Capital'.

Katie's biography

Katie Pilbeam's background

She presented special feature shows from the World Economic Forum in Davos, the Sochi Winter Olympics and Miss Universe. Prior to this Katie worked as a business presenter for Swiss Bank Dukascopy TV in Geneva and IG Trading Group in London.

Katie has most recently worked as a presenter at London Live News, covering a whole range of topics from crime to sport as well as regular red carpet reporting for film premieres.

With a solid background in newspaper journalism, editing and a degree in English Literature – Katie is an accomplished broadcast journalist with a diverse range of skills.

Katie is a popular choice for hosting corporate events – including twelve monthly Geneva Forex Events and regular conferences at the London Stock Exchange.