

Nadine Hani

Anchor for Al Arabiya News Channel based in Dubai

Since she joined Al Arabiya in 2005, Nadine Hani presents and co-produces the financial news programs “Al Aswaq Al Arabiya”, the highest rated business news shows on Arab TV.

Nadine's biography

Nadine Hani's background

Nadine Hani interviewed some of the most influential decision makers in the Arab business world, and internationally, including former U.S. secretaries of the treasury Timothy Geithner and Henry Paulson, Chairman, President and CEO of JP Morgan Jamie Dimon, co-founder and co-CEO of The Carlyle Group David Rubenstein, Chairman of Kingdom Holding company H.H. Prince Al-Waleed Bin Talal Bin Abdulaziz Al-Saud, and current and former Saudi ministers of finance Mohammed Al-Jadaan and Dr. Ibrahim Al-Assaf.

She also reported live from the NYSE (New York Stock Exchange) and has done investigative reports from major Arab cities especially Riyadh, KSA. Nadine covered and reported from major international events and conferences, including the IMF and World Bank annual meetings and the World Economic Forum Annual Meetings in Davos since 2008. Nadine moderated high profile conferences such as panels at the World Economic Forum and Saudi Public Investment Fund events.

Previously she worked as a Private banking consultant for 2 international banks in Lebanon, ABN AMRO Bank and BNP Paribas, advising high net worth individuals on investment alternatives.

A Procter & Gamble scholarship winner, Nadine graduated from the American University of Beirut with a Masters degree in Business Administration.

