

Reged Ahmad

International news anchor with the BBC

Warm and personable, she regularly presents programmes and podcasts across BBC World News and BBC World Service Radio.

Reged's biography

Reged Ahmad's background

Reged is also an experienced correspondent having worked for the Australian Broadcasting Corporation in Sydney before joining the BBC.

Alongside her broadcasting work, Reged is a voice over artist and hosts conferences and other events. She has appeared on panels in Australia talking about the role of journalism in the public sphere and is an engaging public speaker.