

Nina Moghaddam

TV presenter and web video producer

German television presenter, moderator for various events and web video producer. Moghaddam is the daughter of Iranian parents who was born on vacation in Spain. She lives in Cologne, where she grew up and went to school.

Nina's biography

Who is Nina Moghaddam?

Moghaddam was discovered in the VIVA casting You Can Make It Always in 2000. Since then she can be seen regularly on the TV channel Super RTL. From 2002 to 2009 she studied regional science in East Asia with a focus on China at the University of Cologne. Also in 2002 she began to present Toggo TV, in 2004 she also took over the programs WOW – Die Entdeckerzone and Kiddy Contest (a co-production with ORF).

In 2005 she was nominated for the Grimme Prize in the special category for these activities. In the animated comedy It was never in Wonderland (2007), she spoke the Princess Ella. Since 2006 she has also moderated a few programs for RTL such as Deutschland sucht den Superstar – Das Magazin or Das Supertalent – Backstage. In December 2012, RTL announced that DSDS magazine would be discontinued in 2013.

Moghaddam operates since the end of March 2014 a do-it-yourself – YouTube channel, where it homemade, sustainable beauty products manufactures. In September 2018, Moghaddam took part in the television series Fort Boyard.

